Dear Data Protection Officer,

I refer to your response to my subject access request dated 26 November 2025. Having reviewed the disclosure provided, I consider your response to be incomplete and not compliant with the UK GDPR (including Articles 12 and 15).

I attach my letter setting out, in detail, the categories of personal data and information which remain outstanding and the clarifications required (including confirmation of any data said to be not held or withheld, together with the legal basis relied upon).

Please provide your complete response without undue delay and, in any event, by 26 February 2026 (the extended deadline previously notified under Article 12(3) UK GDPR), or within 14 days of this email, whichever is sooner.

The outstanding material is relevant to my ongoing complaint with the Financial Ombudsman Service (PNX-5712039-X0S5) and related regulatory issues.

In the event that a complete response is not received by the above deadline, I reserve the right to refer the matter to the Information Commissioner's Office without further notice.

Regards,

Jack Whittle
